

What impact will you make?

Every day, your work will make an impact that matters, while you thrive in a dynamic culture of inclusion, collaboration and high performance. As the undisputed leader in professional services, Deloitte is where you'll find unrivaled opportunities to succeed and realize your full potential.

The Team

What will the future of energy be? With an increased focus on decarbonisation, decentralization and digitization, the future of energy is both exciting and rapidly changing. It not only affects Energy resource and Industrials utilities but has deep cross-sectoral implications traversing the future of mobility, smart cities of the future and all user industries of the future.

It is expected that most customers will want more options while digitization makes more possible, new delivery concepts may be possible in urban areas where destinations and recipients are concentrated, asset sharing may change the calculus of "ownership," and alternative delivery models shall emerge for electricity. Ultimately, these trends will likely affect stakeholders across the ecosystem.

Deloitte is an acknowledged leader of the iconic energy sector clients, for end to end transformation of their businesses in the face of industry disruption.

As part of the Strategy and Operations group, Deloitte has a dedicated Energy resource and Industrials, Utilities and Resources service line focusing on providing consulting services to clients in India and the Asia Pacific. The team also collaborates with other Deloitte firms in Africa and Middle Eastern geographies as a practice recognized as a regional Centre of Excellence.

The team provides advisory services in areas ranging from strategies to navigate the Future of Energy, market entry strategies, sector policies, operational transformation of entities, digitalization and enterprise technology adoption, etc. We are well integrated with our US and APAC advisory teams in brining international experience to solve our clients' toughest challenges.
